ROBBING UNCLE SAM'S VAULTS

Would not create a greater sensation, than Friedlander's big fight against the clothing combine. The people fairly crowded over each other all Saturday to secure their share of the most marvelous clothing bargains ever offered anywhere. 10 foot stacks of Fine Clothing dwindled into nothing before the onslaught of Saturday's buyers. Come again—the fight will be keener—the bargains greater, for competition and combine are but a faint memory.

NEWS FROM ALEXANDRIA

Politicians Are All at Sea About Tuesday's Vote.

Both Parties Claim the City by a Good Majority—Other Items of Interest.

Never within the history of Alexandria has the result of an election been regarded with such uncertainty as the approaching contest. The gold Democrats are regarded as an unknown quantity, while the Republicans claim they will cast between seventy-five and a hundred votes, 90 per cent of which will be drawn from the Democratic party. On account of this state of affairs the Republicans claim that they will carry the city by a small majority for McKinley and Hobart. The Democrats, however, do not concede the city to the Republicans, claiming that Bryan and Sewall will carry the town by at least 250 majority. This would be a Democratic loss of 600, from the vote cast for Cleveland in 1892.

The Bryan, Sewall and Rixey Club will wind up the campaign with a big demonstration at the Opera House tonight, which will be addressed by Mr. Frank E. Anderson, and the McKinley and Hobart Marching Club will hold a mass meeting on South Asaph street, near Gibson street. Wires will be run into the Opera House and the returns will be received there tomorrow night. The hall will be open to the public.

The Alexandria county authorities yesterday sent to the police headquarters in the city for the coffin which had been held by the police. Elijah Cox, the colored man who was found drunk on the streets with the coffin on Saturday night, has been unable to pay his fine. The infant child of Winnie Ann Johnson, for which the coffin was purchased, was interred yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Francis Carroll, a well-known resident of the city, died at the Alexandria Infirmary yesterday morning about 11 o'clock. The deceased was about thirty-five years of age and had been ill with consumption for several years. He was a member of the Columbia Fire Company.

Benjamin Henderson, colored, was arrested by Officer Wilkinson yesterday on the charge of assaulting United Guardsman. The latter was arrested by Lieut. Smith on the charge of disorderly conduct.

Reunion services were held in the Methodist Protestant Church yesterday in the morning, afternoon, and evening. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers. Eloquent sermons were delivered by Rev. Thomas Hamilton Lewis, D. D., president of the Western Maryland College, Westminster, Md. Revival services will be held in the church each night during this month. Washington clergymen will occupy the pulpit each night this week.

Mr. G. B. Hunter of Washington, who has been the guest of Mr. H. H. Young, at Carlin's Springs, has returned home. Mr. Eppa Athey has returned from a visit to Fauquier county.

Mr. David J. Lannon, formerly of this city, but now of New York, is here on a visit. The Alexandria Free Art School will reopen tomorrow evening. Miss Annie V. Francis, who is a graduate of the Corcoran Art School, of Washington, has been appointed teacher to take the place of Miss Hallie Ramsey, resigned. An acquaintance with the school where students can make studies from full length figures. Misses Critcher, Edlin, and Francis will be the teachers, the school year being divided into three terms of two months each.

The oyster supper which was held last week in the Lyceum for the benefit of the poor, will be continued tonight.

HUNDREDS OF BEER BOTTLES

Anderson's Grocery Store Raided by the Police.

Proprietor's Story Was Not Accepted and He Is Now on Bail.

Henry B. Anderson is proprietor of a grocery store at 45 G street northeast, at least he was up until yesterday morning. He is out on $1,000 bail now, all because the police of the Fifth precinct found 500 bottles of beer in the back room of his place of business.

The beer is at the New Jersey avenue station and Mr. Anderson says it does not belong to him, and that he was only keeping it for a friend. The police say they have heard that old story before and that altogether too many men came out of Mr. Anderson's store on Sunday carrying breaths that would stop a cubic car.

The officers on that beat have had their attention called to the grocery store because of the class of Mr. Anderson's patrons. Every Sunday a large number of young men who carefully kept away from any large packages, but Mr. Anderson's shop possessed a peculiar fascination for them. A watch was kept on the place for several weeks until evidence could be secured, and at last a warrant was sworn out.

Yesterday morning bright and early Mr. Anderson opened his store. His first customers were Detective Harigan, Sergt. Hamilton and Policemen Hayes, Lynch and Bean. They placed Mr. Anderson under arrest and searched the store. In a back room were 500 soda water bottles with something in them that looked like ginger ale. Detective Harigan pulled the cork of one bottle and raised it to his nose.

"There's a familiar odor about that," he said, and the others took him at his word.

At the station Mr. Anderson protested that the liquor did not belong to him, but the excuse was not accepted. Bail was furnished by ex-Police Sergeant Brown and Grocer Anderson was released. The case will come up in police court this morning.

COMING POLITICAL REFORMS.

Subjects Discussed at the Single Tax Gathering Yesterday.

An audience so large as at times to almost block the sidewalk attended the single tax regular Sunday afternoon open air meeting yesterday on Pennsylvania avenue, near Ninth street. From 5 to 8 p. m. the crowd stood around eagerly listening to the speakers. Messrs. J. H. T. Eschlepp, D. Webster Groh, A. R. Davis, and others who spoke on "Coming Political Reforms."

The speakers declared that principles are greater than political parties, and will survive when party names have been buried in oblivion. "Labors" said they, "is the creator of capital, and the creator need neither fear nor fight his own creature. The

BOY AND GUN.

Started Out to Kill Indians and Was Arrested Himself.

James Desmond is thirteen years old, and has read enough about the doings of Deadwood Dick and sundry other heroes of the nickel novels to inspire him with a desire to emulate their example.

Yesterday James' father was sick and James possessed himself of his parent's 44-caliber, two-foot revolver, and started out to kill a few Indians. James and the small-sized shot gun journeyed as far as Smithson's court southwest, when they came across a sick cat sunning itself in an alley.

The boy thought this a good opportunity to begin practice and blazed away. Policemen Harries heard the explosion and thought the gas tanks had blown up. He found James and the revolver struggling for the supremacy in the alley and took them to the station. James was charged with carrying concealed weapons, and the gun was taken in charge by the station-keeper.

BELLE OF "FOGGY BOTTOM."
Estella Brooks Resented a Rival's Appearance With Her Beau.

Estella Brooks and Robert Harris have been "going together" for four years, and when the girl saw her sweetheart with Louisa Thomas Saturday night, she laid plans to make trouble. Estella and Robert did not go to the station, where she was locked up on a charge of assault.

When Policemen Hayes arrived Louisa's friends were holding the belle of "Foggy Bottom," and Louisa had a long, deep gash in her hand where the girl had cut her with a shoe knife. Policemen Hayes sent Estella to the station, where she was locked up on a charge of assault.
